4TH MARCH 2018

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Eternal God, give us insight to discern your will for us, to give up what harms us, and to seek the perfection we are promised in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Response to Psalm 19.7-end

You, Lord, have the words of eternal life.

Post Communion

Merciful Lord, grant your people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow you, the only God; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel John 2.13-22

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money-changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, 'Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!' His disciples remembered that it was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' The Jews then said to him, 'What sign can you show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Further details can be found on their website: www.parishnursing.org.uk. If we decide to proceed we'll need a keen and enthusiastic team to get things moving. Come along and see if this could be you! Plan International - thank you to everyone who has supported the £30 monthly payment to PLAN, which has provided education for two children since March 2008. When the children reach 18 the sponsorship transfers to another younger child. The children being sponsored are Shara in Pakistan aged 15 and Joaquina in Mozambique aged 3 months! Your kindness has made a massive difference to these and other children... every penny counts. Father Peter.
