Sharing God's welcome; growing disciples

29TH JULY 2018
9TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

WELCOME

To those who are strangers and those who are familiar, to those who are confident and those who struggle, to the young and to the not so young, God welcomes you to his house and to his table.

Collect for this Sunday

Almighty God, who sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your Church: open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love and joy and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Readings for this week RCL page 635

2 Kings 4.42-end, Psalm 145.10-19, Ephesians 3.14-21, John 6.1-21.

Response to Psalm 145.10-19

You open wide your hand, O Lord, and satisfy our needs.

Post Communion

Holy Father, who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God: in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next week's readings RCL page 642

Exodus 16.2-4, 9-15, Psalm 78.23-29, Ephesians 4.1-16, John 6.24-35.

Gospel John 6.1-21

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.’ One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to him, ‘There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?’ Jesus said, ‘Make the people sit down.’ Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, ‘Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.’ So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, ‘This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.’ When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, ‘It is I; do not be afraid.’ Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

The Festival of St Bernard of Clairvaux, 1153 and William & Catherine Booth, founders of The Salvation Army 1912/1890.

On Sunday August the 19th, the third Sunday 6.00 pm Eucharist at St Andrew Pencoys will celebrate these key figures in the life of the church, in both teaching the Christian faith and the necessity for social outreach. There will be celebration cake and fizz after the service. All are very welcome to attend.

"Mamma Mia! Here we go again" - Several people have asked if we can go as a group to see this film. The difficulty will be finding the most convenient day and time, as these details are only released a week before. As soon as these details can be arranged then they will be in the Sunday sheet. If you can't wait, then have fun!! Father Peter.

Summer Holiday Project* continues with details of events in the weekly calendar. Please contact Father Peter for more information on 07903 807946 and to book places please phone Mandy on 07966 791727. Every outing will need a packed lunch, a hat and sun cream.

Below is a picture of Ross' painting that will be auctioned after today's Benefice service. Please do come and view this wonderful piece of art based on the Resurrection appearances - the image below does not really do it justice, as it is in black and white, so you need to see it in all its glorious colour!
